Royal Update

e-newsletter of the Royal Rosarians

Greetings, Rosarians and Friends,

Thanks for reading this issue of the e-newsletter of the Royal Rosarians produced by Duke Peter Glazer, Sir Knight Tom Marantette and Sir Knight Norb Murray. If you have suggestions or contributions for the Royal Update, please contact Tom (tjm@atiyehbros.com) or Peter (pkglazer@aol.com).

Group Photo To Be Taken

After Plaque Laying, September 11

Incoming Prime Minister Jim Stahl invites you to be in the new and updated group photo that will be taken in about a week. On September 11 the Prime Minister's Plaque Laying ceremony and Rose Planting will be held at Washington Park to honor our incoming Prime Minister and First Lady. Please plan to attend the ceremony that begins at 12 noon. The group photo will be taken following the ceremony. Rosarians should assemble at the park by 11:30 a.m. and whites with hats, gloves and capes will be the appropriate attire. Don't forget your best smile.

The above photo was taken in 2007. Other group photos in recent history were taken in 2000 and 2012.

This photo depicts the Prime Minister's Plaque Laying Ceremony for Duchess Marilyn Schultz two years ago. Each year the new Prime Minister is honored as a permanent plaque is laid in the Prime Minister's Walk at Washington Park. In addition, the Prime Minister's rose is planted next to the plaque.

Prime Minister's Ball

Saturday, September 10

Registration will soon close for the Prime Minister's Ball on Saturday, September 10. Incoming Prime Minister Jim Stahl and First Lady Geneane have a great evening planned for your enjoyment. The event is chaired by the experienced team of Gene and Sue Horton. It will be an opportunity to meet the new Royal Rosarian Council as they are installed into service. The Foundation officers will also be installed during the ceremony. Over 260 persons have registered and the ballroom is near capacity. Register today so you don't miss out.

This year's P.M. Ball will be held at the Red Lion Hotel at Jantzen Beach, a perfect venue to enjoy the Columbia River and to enjoy your favorite dance music. It will be a formal affair for an evening of royal elegance. Invitations have been sent (this year email is being used for many). The cost is $65.00 per person. Sign up now online.

Washington State Autumn Leaf Festival

September 23-25

The Autumn Leaf Festival celebrates the turning colors of the Autumn leaves and is Leavenworth's original festival, originating in 1964 when the City of Leavenworth adopted the Bavarian theme. This weekend includes a Friday Formal Night, a Saturday Rose Planting at 9:00 a.m. followed by the Grand Parade at noon. Enjoy a stroll and shopping in town before the Fun Night, Bavarian-style!

The Enzian Hotel is the official site for this Bavarian celebration and it is important to make reservations now because it fills up fast. Check out more details at the Autumn Leaf Festival website at <http://autumnleaffestival.com/> or contact Don Thacker with questions.

image: one need only travel just north to the state of Washington to get a great taste of Bavaria. The buildings, the costumes and the food will make you think you have taken a trip to Europe.

It's Great To Be Prime Minister

Who Wouldn't Want to Be One?

Apparently, the Seattle Seahawk Cheerleaders (Sea Gals) cannot resist a man in uniform. The PM job is a lot of hard work but here, Rick makes the most of it.

PM Rick has a new friend, a gift from Mike Ware presented to him at the Cuban Nights Dinner hosted by Mike and Colleen Ware. The event was an auction item at the Hearts and Roses Auction. This caped friend was made by Dame Linda Seals. Can you see Rick's mouth move?

Many Rosarians remember the Tillamook tradition of a crab feed followed by all Rosarians depositing their shells in front of the Prime Minister. At Mike and Colleen's Cuban Nights party they served lobster tails and guess what? The shells ended up in a pile in front of a very happy Prime Minister.

Volunteers Needed

Every year the Royal Rosarian Foundation promotes the sale and delivery of poinsettia plants prior to the Christmas Season. It has been quite successful in past years but that success depends on good planning and a lot of hard work from Rosarian volunteers long before the holiday season arrives. Please contact Jannette Day (jday409109@aol.com) if you are able and willing to make this year's effort successful again. The work is easy and might be as simple as delivering plants in your vehicle. Please volunteer.

Jim Nielson's Truisms

This Issue's "Truism"

"Without labor nothing prospers"

--Sophocles

(The late Jim Nielson, Prime Minister in 1979, was famous for his "truisms" which he happily shared in each issue of the Royal Update from its launch in 2005 until his death in 2011. Jim was knighted under the rose Sutter's Gold, pictured. Truisms now are either from Jim's archives or are quotations Duke Peter thinks Jim would like. If you'd like to suggest a quotation please email it to Peter.)
