Royal Update

e-newsletter of the Royal Rosarians

Greetings, Rosarians and Friends,

Thanks for reading this issue of the e-newsletter of the Royal Rosarians produced by Duke Peter Glazer and Sir Knight Norb Murray. If you have suggestions or contributions for the Royal Update, please contact Norb (norbmur@comcast.net) or Peter (pkglazer@aol.com). Sir Knight Tom Marantette is the technical advisor.

Washington State Autumn Leaf Festival

September 22-24

This weekend marks the end of a great festival season in the Northwest for the Royal Rosarians with the Washington State Autumn Leaf Festival in Leavenworth, Washington. The Autumn Leaf Festival celebrates the turning colors of the Autumn leaves and is Leavenworth's original festival, originating in 1964 when the City of Leavenworth adopted the Bavarian theme. The weekend includes a Friday Formal Night, a Saturday Rose Planting at 9:00 a.m. followed by the Grand Parade at noon. Enjoy a stroll and shopping in town before the Fun Night, Bavarian style!

If you are not attending this year, consider going next year.
Leavenworth is a good host and a fun city with its Bavarian theme.

A highlight in Leavenworth is a serenade by an alpenhorn at the Enzian Inn.

Prime Minister's Ball

It was a big night for the new Rosarian Prime Minister Adam Baker and his First Lady Lauren. Nearly 260 Rosarians and guests filled the Melody Ballroom for an evening of pageantry, celebration and fun.

Duke Rick Saturn presents outgoing Prime Minister Jim Stahl with the cape of the Royal Regent.

Adam receives the Prime Minister's medallion from Duchess Sue Klobertanz while Secretary of State Kimberly Bown, Royal Regent Jim Stahl and Duke Scott Stuhl make sure it's done right.

Jim and Geneane Stahl present newly installed Prime Minister Adam Baker and First Lady Lauren with the Loving Cup. This has been a Rosarian tradition since 1953 when then Prime Minister Donald Sloan started the tradition after witnessing it on a trip to England.

Another tradition is the presentation of a gavel from the Hyack Festival in New Westminster, British Columbia. The president of the Hyack Festival 2017 Board of Directors, David Brett, presents the gavel to Prime Minister Adam.

Sir Larry Klobertanz latches the First Lady necklace on his daughter, First Lady Lauren as former First Lady Geneane looks on.

Dinner and ceremonies done, attendees let it shake to the tunes played by Sir Knight Larry Rodman's band Big Night Out. Larry is also the drummer in the band.

Our new Prime Minister shows one of many talents as he joins the band for a couple of songs. Here he sings Stevie Wonder's "Superstition."

Now that he has the crowd all wound up it's time for a giant selfie. Or is he practicing his best Maori grimace for the Prime Minister's trip to New Zealand?

First Lady Lauren some good insider advice.

Airport Send-Off

Pat Maberry

The Portland Sapporo Sister City Association requested a send-off greeting for the Multnomah Athletic Club's Gymnasts team the morning of September 11th at the airport. The team was preparing to fly to Sapporo to participate in a Gymnastic Exchange. The Royal Rosarians enjoyed meeting the Gymnasts as wishes of success were given and roses were attached to labels and jackets and memory photos were being taken. Attending the greeting were Kilong Ung, Pat Maberry, Ilise Kindler and Amy Arasmith .

Jim Nielson's Truisms

This Issue's "Truism"

"The second day of a diet is always easier than the first. By the second day you're off it."

- Jackie Gleason

(The late Jim Nielson, Prime Minister in 1979, was famous for his "truisms" which he happily shared in each issue of the Royal Update from its launch in 2005 until his death in 2011. Jim was knighted under the rose Sutter's Gold, pictured. Truisms now are either from Jim's archives or are quotations Duke Peter thinks Jim would like. If you'd like to suggest a quotation please email it to Peter.)
