Royal Rosarian Profile

This Rosarian is one of our hardest working new members. If you haven't seen a lot of her yet, you will.

Born in California and raised in Medford, she is a graduate of Oregon State.

By marriage you might say she is "related" to a very famous Portlander, whose birth in 1962 was international news.

Her earliest memory of the Royal Rosarians comes from her work as a young buyer at Meier & Frank and watching the Grand Floral Parade from her office window.

Her proudest achievement was working for 36 years with her late husband, the veterinarian who delivered

Portland's world-famous baby, Packy, in 1962. When the Royal Rosarians knighted Packy, it occurred to this Rosarian that if she became a Rosarian she could continue the legacy of community service which she had shared with her husband.

This Rosarian has gotten up close and personal with elephants, at least once being personally inspected with an elephant trunk under her clothes. She co-authored "Packy and Me" with her husband, Dr. Matthew Maberry, and she is having a fabulous time as a Rosarian, this year becoming a Red Cape for 2016 Prime Minister Rick Saturn. She is Patricia Maberry.

Royal Pitch at Hillsboro Stadium

98 MPH Fastball Wows Crowd!

On Saturday
August 8, 2015 Sir
Knight Mark

Sleasman was honored to provide the first pitch at a Hillsboro Hops baseball game. He had purchased the opportunity at the Royal Rosarian Foundation Annual Auction in February. At the Prime Minister's request, he wore his white uniform.

Mark was introduced as "Mark Sleasman, representing the Portland Royal Rosarian Foundation." A few friends were there but an unexpected very loud cheer came from one fan behind the plate. Dame Barbara Brennan was in her season ticket seat and let the whole stadium know "Hooray for the Rosarians!" more than once. It made Mark smile and gave him confidence.

Okay, it may not have been quite 98 mph but it was right down the middle. Way to go, Mark!

Jim Nielson's Truisms

This Issue's "Truism"

"A smile is the light in your window that tells others that there is a caring, sharing person inside."

-- Denis Waitley

(The late Jim Nielson, Prime Minister in 1979, was famous for his "truisms" which he happily shared in each issue of the Royal Update from its launch in 2005 until his death in 2011. Jim was knighted under the rose Sutter's Gold, pictured. Truisms now are either from Jim's archives or are quotations Duke Peter thinks Jim would like. If you'd like to suggest a quotation please email it to Peter.)
