Royal Update

e-newsletter of the Royal Rosarians

Greetings, Rosarians and Friends,

Thanks for reading this issue of the e-newsletter of the Royal Rosarians produced by Duke Peter Glazer, Sir Knight Tom Marantette and Sir Knight Norb Murray. If you have suggestions or contributions for the Royal Update, please contact Tom (tjm@atiyehbros.com) or Peter (pkglazer@aol.com).

Purely Social Potluck

by Pat
Hufford

Halloween, October 31

Adam and Lauren Baker graciously volunteered to host a Purely Social Potluck. This is to be held on Halloween Monday, October 31 at 6:30 p.m. Their address is 20127 Chanticleer Place in Oregon City.

Costumes are optional, however, they are encouraged.

The Purely Social events, for several years, have been a great way to meet new members, visit old friends, and enjoy the wonderful culinary delights of many.

If you would like to attend please email or call Pat Hufford with the culinary delight that you would like to bring. Pat's email is: phufford@aol.com. Her phone is 971-285-0059.

Macy's Thanksgiving Parade

Friday, November 25

The Rosarians have been invited to march in the Macy's Thanksgiving Parade on Friday, November 25. The last time the Royal Rosarians participated in the parade was ten years ago in 2006. A minimum of 50 Rosarians are needed to enter in the parade. See Announcements below for details. Commitment is needed no later than November 11.

Rosarian Rotogravure

Jim and Geneane enjoying the view from Mt. Pilatus in Switzerland. Switzerland was the beginning of the Prime Minister's trip by River Boat Cruise on the Rhine River ending in Amsterdam.

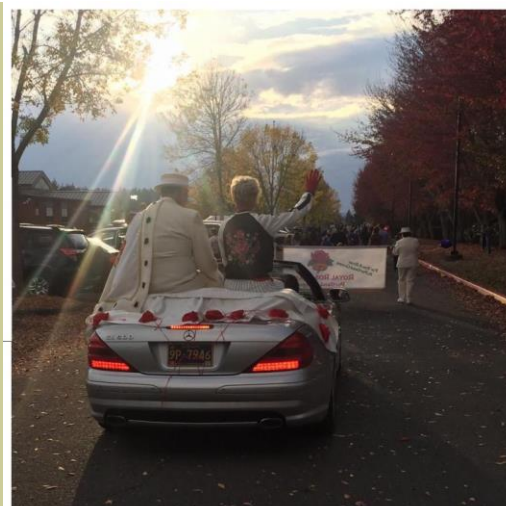

Rosarians kept busy having fun, sight-seeing, planting roses first in Lucerne, and on the ship, the Viking Kara, and shopping along the Rhine River.

Jim and Geneane practiced filling some big shoes in Kinderjick in South Holland.

Rick and Marie start their last day as Prime Minister and First Lady with a rose planting at the Oregon Zoo.

Rick and Marie wind up their busy last day as Prime Minister and First Lady honoring Queen Grace by riding in the Centennial High School Homecoming Parade

Rosarian Greetings

Pat Maberry

Rosarians provided a warm welcome to the National President of the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW), Colette Bishop. Ms. Bishop was visiting Oregon to meet and thank grassroots volunteers who make a difference in the lives of Veterans and their families.

Members traveled to the airport to provide a greeting for the Portland/Khabarovsk Sister City Organization sponsoring an English teacher and four of her students from Gymnasia #5 in Khabarovsk, Russia.

Royal Regent Rick led Rosarian greeters to the airport to greet Prime Minister Jim, First Lady Geneane, and their Prime Minister trip travelers as they arrived home.

Rosarians also provided greetings to a group from Sapporo, Japan, Oregon's Governor, Kate Brown.

Jim Nielson's Truisms

This Issue's "Truism"

"I'm so glad I live in a world where there are Octobers."

- Sarah Addison Allen, First Frost

(The late Jim Nielson, Prime Minister in 1979, was famous for his "truisms" which he happily shared in each issue of the Royal Update from its launch in 2005 until his death in 2011. Jim was knighted under the rose Sutter's Gold, pictured. Truisms now are either from Jim's archives or are quotations Duke Peter thinks Jim would like. If you'd like to suggest a quotation please email it to Peter.)
