Royal Update

e-newsletter of the Royal Rosarians

Greetings, Rosarians and Friends,

Thanks for reading this issue of the e-newsletter of the Royal Rosarians produced by Duke Peter Glazer and Sir Knight Tom Marantette. If you have suggestions or contributions for the Royal Update, please contact Tom (tjm@atiyehbros.com) or Peter (pkglazer@aol.com).

Washington State Autumn Leaf Festival

Join the Fun In Leavenworth, September 25-27

Sign up on the Rosarian website if you plan to participate (click below). You need to reserve your room at the Enzian Inn as soon as possible. Call 509-548-5269 and give group number 9473.

There was not enough interest in riding Rosie the bus to Leavenworth so that option is no longer available. However, your drive will be enjoyable as you find your way to Central Washington either through the beautiful Columbia Gorge or over scenic Snoqualmie pass. Either route is an easy and relaxing drive.

David Rich is event Chair and can be reached at 503-577-8315 to answer any questions or you can click on the link below to go directly to sign up page on our website. David is looking for flag and banner carriers and would love to hear from you if you have an interest.

Prime Minister's Ball

Last Saturday Evening

This image displays the splendor of the Sentinel Hotel (formerly the Governor Hotel) and the elegance of the evening. Here, attendees are treated to the entertaining sounds of the Grant High School Royal Blues.

The evening's honored couple, Rick and Marie Saturn are introduced to the audience as they enter the room (with Cosmo) to the tunes of their chosen song, "Ain't that a Kick in the Head " by Dean Martin. All Council members to be installed as well as Dukes and Duchesses were introduced to the sounds of a song they had chosen. The evening was a tribute to all who have stepped up to lead the organization.

Outgoing Prime Minister Marilyn Schultz happily presents the incoming Prime Minister with the "Loving Cup." The passing of this cup is a ceremony deeply steeped in Royal Rosarian tradition.

Prime Minister's Plaque Laying Ceremony

Last Sunday In Washington Park
Incoming Prime Minister Rick Saturn unveils the bronze plaque to be permanently displayed in the Washington Park's Prime Ministers' Walk. A rose is also planted in his honor. It is a grand event that is coordinated by the outgoing Prime Minister.

Opening of Light Rail Orange Line

Last Saturday
Royal Rosarians played a significant role in the opening of the new Max Light Rail Line from Milwaukie to Downtown Portland. Mayor Charlie Hales is shown giving the completed project a "Thumbs Up" as Rosarians doff their hats.

Remembering the Past

Who could forget this 1959 image of the way we parked cars in Downtown Portland? This parking structure was located at SW 9th and Oak. Elevators raised the vehicle to the appropriate level where we hope a paid professional actually parked it.

Pigeonhole Parking, a Neat Idea Before Its Time, SW 9th & Oak, 1959

Speaking of professionals, who can forget the former Royal Rosarian Wine Committee? This auspicious group recently gathered for this photograph when they reunited to tour yet another winery. Their wine tasting skills are certainly at the professional level. Seated (L-R) are Shirley Sagerser, Ev Greer, Betty Maring, Phyllis Greer and Tom Sagerser. Standing (L-R) are Gene Horton, Shirley Kronquist, Gordon Torstenbo, Pat Torstenbo, Sue Horton, Patti Ryan, Bob Ryan and Bob Kronquist.
