President's Remarks

It never ceases to amaze me what we can achieve when we work together as a team.

Take, for example, the Disco Ball that we hosted on the weekend. It is our biggest single fundraiser event that we do each year.

Last fall, as the committee started to plan the event, it seemed insurmountable that we would be able to pull off another event with the aim to create a bigger and more enjoyable experience than the previous years. But each of us pulled together our collective talents in a coordinated fashion. We came up with a winning theme, Saturday Night Fever.

We secured the Chef, the DJ, marketed the event, solicited a plethora of auction items, coordinated tastings providers and sponsorships, decorated the hall, and pulled off a fantastically enjoyable evening while raising funds for a great cause, the new hospital capital fund.

Congratulations to the committee for another successful event, and congratulations to everyone in the Club for helping to make this annual event happen.

Last Week: Jim Dunlop, Mike Harper, Brent Kleinsteuber

Wellington - Ward 3 Candidates' Panel

Incumbent Jim Dunlop and challengers Mike Harper and Brent Kleinsteuber were joined by a cross section of Rotarians and interested business leaders to discuss the course charted by Prince Edward County council in recent years and what issues facing Wellington needed to be addressed in the coming term.

Dunlop said the village was on track to have infrastructure improvements including water line upgrades which would positively impact both the village and the Wellington-on-the-Lake.

An close examination and a potential mitigation strategy to the Airbnb boom will commence further this fall and work on the wall at the Wellington Park getting completed in the near future are two items of interested for the longtime Wellington councillor.

Kleinsteinuber is one of the younger candidates running in the upcoming municipal election but his age has not kept him inactive in the community. Regularly volunteering with a number of initiatives including the Wellington Recreation Committee, Wellington Museum and the As One That Serves (AOTS) group.

Harper said running for a seat at the horseshoe was a new challenge and added some of the questionable decisions council has made was motivation to toss his hat into the municipal ring. The demolition of the Methodist Church, the unwarranted rehabilitation of Union road improvement and the handling of the convenience store property on the corner of Main and Wharf Streets were just some of the issues where council failed in Harper's opinion.

Harper added that his platform was about managing the change Prince Edward County is going through and that the draw of this community that attracted so many new settlers in the past two decades was being altered
