Rat Fink Mike

"Things you never heard in this club before 1987"

On May 4th, 1987 the US Supreme Court decided women can join Rotary and now there are conversations in our club that would have never been heard before 1987. Sharon—"What are men's two moods?". Terry to new member Henry- "You can keep your Rotary decal in your purse". Ginny—"Let's give Mike a hug... I found a new recipe on Pinterest...How do you defrost a turkey?". Christina "Just four months to go (in my pregnancy)". Christina—"I still fit into my bridesmaid dress!". Terry—"Does this armored vest make my ass look big?".

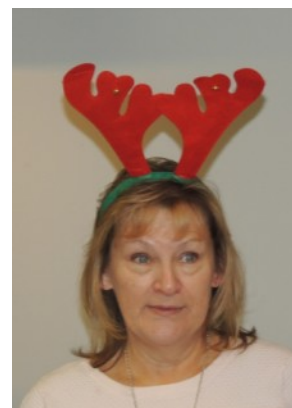

The Rat Fink also doled out fine and credits. Henry was fined for no Rotary decal on car. Jonathan was fined for keeping Rotary equipment in a urine cup. Rocky was given a credit of donating his kidney. Hal was fined for using the phone during a meeting on December 1st. John and Allan were also fined for using their phones. Pete was fined for following a woman's order and to start dancing. May was fined for not singing on August 18th. Bob was fined for having his phone ring on September 1st. Bob was fined for bringing in the first woman in our club. Caitlyn Jenner was credited for being Woman of the Year in Glamour magazine after being a woman for only a year. Wade was credited for fixing Mike's lock.

Happy Bucks!

Lynne Kline

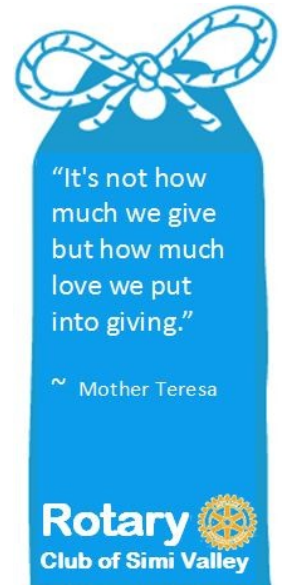

Kate was happy for the brief rain and her hearing aid. Sharon was happy to be a member of this club. Terry was happy for nice people and Mike. Mike was happy for the women of the club. He was also happy to get out of his ticket with the LA County Sheriff. Becky was happy for Deb. Henry was happy to be here and he was also happy to be a pre paid member of the Neptune Society. Anil was happy for Deb and his NID team which include a member from Canada and a non Rotarian. Jonathan was happy for Brian and Jennifer. Lew was happy for Tony, pizza, the humor of the club and Christmas music. Sharon was happy for the Soroptimists in Simi Valley and the 3 club holiday party. Kelly was for her wedding anniversary and her first NID. Tristan was happy for Brian and Jennifer, the bike assembly and May. Ginny was happy for Lew and his character counts lessons on parking lots and fallen Christmas trees.

SECRET GREETER

KELLY

Character Counts by Reverend Dr. Lew Fry

Religion and Business

Reverend Lew discussed religion and business and how it teaches believers how to live. A rabbi and a soap maker had a debate. The soap maker said, "What good is religion? It teaches honesty, but most people are dishonest." The rabbi answered, "My dear soap-maker, religion – like soap – only works when you use it." If religion is important, so it ethics.

Another moment with Dr. Fry on how character counts.

Save the Date And Announcements

- ♦ Over 500 Bikes were assembled at the Junkyard Restaurant. Kudos to Evelyn and Tony for providing the facility and pizza for everyone.
- ♦ Christmas Angels: bring an unwrapped gift with card to Dr. Deb's place or the Salvation Army office. Special thanks to Lynne Kline and her hunk elves!
- ♦ Sharon Austel graciously hosts the 3 club Holiday Party on December 29th. Bring a beverage or dessert.
- ♦ Rocky and the International Committee is requesting a host family for Max from March to June next year. Non Rotarians are also eligible.

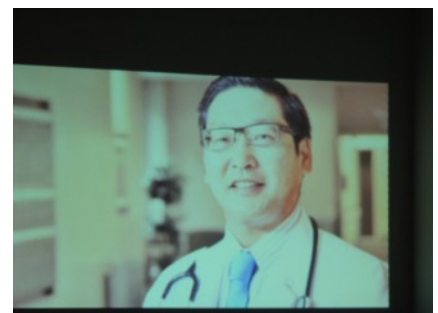

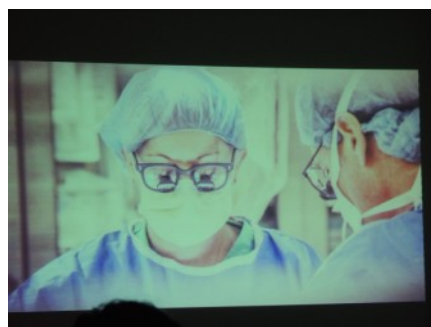

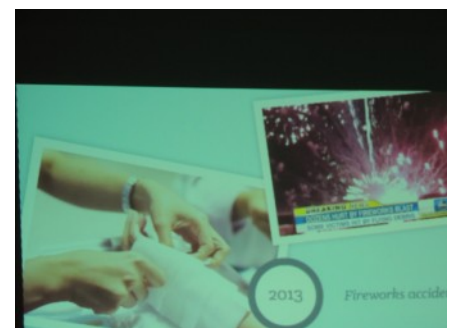

Jennifer Swenson
President and CEO
Simi Valley Hospital

Jennifer Swenson started this year as the new CEO and President of Simi Valley Hospital. She was previously the CEO of Fort Hamilton Hospital in Ohio. Jennifer was born in Wisconsin to parents from New Zealand and Australia. She received her undergraduate degree at Pacific Union College (also Kelly's alma mater) and her masters degree at Ohio University. She was worked at Simi Valley Hospital as the controller from 2000 to 2004.

This year marks the 50th anniversary of the hospital. The hospital was started by Dr. Jones but grew rapidly during it's early years with help from Drs. Elvin Gaines and Otto Austel. Otto, Elvin and the original CEOs were all members of the noontime Rotary Club.

The hospital continues to grow with the recent addition of a new emergency room and operating suites. The hospital has 850 employee, an operating budget of 130 million dollars, and over 22 million dollars invested in the community.
