

Some of the people can't get out past the man in the doll house. The ones who do get out, bring food back from the wrecked centre and call it pot luck .

My Grandma says that Grandpa worked all his life to earn his retardment and says I should work hard so I can be retarded some day too. When I earn my retardment, I want to be the man in the doll house. Then I will let people out so they can visit their grandchildren.

(Thanks to Kay for this article. Hopefully we will all be able to visit our grandchildren soon.)

A thank you note was received from Elva Krause's family acknowledging the friendships she enjoyed during her many years at Probus.

IF DONALD TRUMP HAD CAPTAINED THE TITANIC

- There is no Iceberg.
- We won't hit an iceberg.
- I knew it was an iceberg before anyone else knew.
- No one knows icebergs better than I do.
- The penguins brought the iceberg here.
- No one could have predicted the iceberg.
- We cannot allow an iceberg to stop our ship.
- The crew is spreading fake news about icebergs.
- Some of you have to drown.
- I am the best captain, ask anyone.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT

What can I say about this crazy time we are going through at the moment. I do hope that you are all coping OK. I have spoken to many of you over the last couple of weeks and hopefully will be able to be in touch with those I have not yet been able to contact. Feel free to call me at any time if you need anything or just want to chat.

It has been interesting speaking to people and hearing what they are doing to keep occupied. There are a lot of cupboards being cleaned and "clutter busting" going on, if only the op shops were open they would be doing very well at the moment. We all have plenty of time to catch up on things we have been putting off doing, not that I have done too much of that, there is always tomorrow.

We have jigsaw puzzles, crosswords and book reading keeping people occupied. I still have yet to master sudoku, think I have it until I get to the last square and sure enough not right, for those of you who can do it good on you, have tried various methods but I am still to get it. I will stick to crosswords I can manage them. Our minds are certainly being kept active which is good. Plenty of time to stop and smell the roses at present with our busy lives coming to a standstill. We have been blessed over Easter with nice weather so that we could get out in the sunshine and not have to stay indoors all the time.

With technology these days there are various ways to keep in touch with people, even though some of these can be a challenge for us, we all need a child to show us how things work.

We would like to hear any experiences you have had over the last few weeks, ways you have been able to amuse yourselves, recipes or have anything you would like to share that will give us a laugh. You can contact Pam via email or phone. Hopefully we can make our newsletter a way of keeping in touch even though we are not able to meet in person at present.

RETARDED GRANDPARENTS

After summer vacation, a teacher asked her young pupils how they spent their holidays away from school. One child wrote the following:

We always used to spend summers with Grandma & Grandpa. They used to live in a big brick house, but Grandpa got retarded and moved to Florida. They go to a building called the wrecked centre, but they must have got it fixed because it is ok now, and do exercises there. There is a swimming pool too where they all jump up & down with hats on.

At the gate, there is a doll house with a little old man sitting in it. He watches all day so nobody can escape. Sometimes they sneak out. They go cruising in their golf carts. Nobody there cooks, they just out. They eat the same thing every night: Early Birds. pto
