Coalition
assists
"returning citizens" to reduce recidivism

Nico Bus and Kim Kiefer have fun while JGR raised $1,791 for the Salvation Army Dec. 10. See more pictures p. 2. Thank you Karla Schofield and Annette Smith for the photos and Annette and Candy Behrends for organizing.

Sixty-three percent of Alaskan inmates end up back in jail. The Re-entry Coalition aims to cut that rate by 20 percent. Former cruise line executive and deputy commissioner of the Dept. of Administration, Don Habeger, above, is working to implement a plan that connects "returning citizens" to community supports after incarceration. A key partner is Michael Hutcherson, left, SE area manager with the AK Dept. of Labor and Workforce Development. DOL offers two employer incentive programs: a tax credit and fidelity bonding.
