of OSHA safety and health training and leadership courses. Fire-HouseCommunications.com provides publishing and marketing services.

Sherrie has served on editorial and advisory boards for Industrial Fire World Magazine, Emergency Medical Services Magazine, Texas EMS Magazine, and as a reviewer of EMS text for both Mosby Lifeline and Brady Publishing. She has more than fifty published Fire, EMS and Emergency incident related articles, publications and conference presentations. She has authored two manuals, Rescue Team Training, published by Emergency Management Resources and Medical Terminology, published by Fun Ed Inc. Sherrie is currently working on her third book about her life and career as the first female firefighter, paramedic in Dallas. Faith On Fire is scheduled for publication summer 2015.

Sherrie has also served in a number of leadership roles within the American Heart Association including ECC Committee member, International Volunteer Trainer in Russia, India and Mexico. She currently serves as a Basic Life Support (BLS), Advanced Cardiac Life Support (ACLS) and Pediatric Life Support (PALS) Regional Faculty.

Sherrie received a Bachelor of Science in Public Administration from Hawthorne University and completed Paramedic training at the University Texas Health Science Center, Dallas, Texas.

New Member Approved

With Valentine’s Day approaching the board decided to reschedule this month’s typical second Tuesday meeting, which would have coincided with Valentine’s Day, and instead held the board meeting immediately following last week’s regular meeting. During the board meeting the board voted by unanimous consent to approve the proposed membership of Richard Lin. In accordance with the by-laws, the 7-day review period during which objections to the proposed membership can be brought to the board’s attention, was announced and officially began on February 15th. If no objections are raised Richard will be eligible for induction beginning February 22nd.

Inclusive Playground in Richardson

The City of Richardson and Richardson East Rotary Club (RERC) are teaming up to develop plans, increase public awareness and raise additional funds needed to enhance the building of the City’s It’s Finally Here!

The evening of Saturday, February 25th will be the culmination of a monumental effort by a lot of selfless people. Rotary Cares – Games and Gala, our annual fundraiser with a new name, will take place at St. Paul’s Parish Center. Thanks to all of you who have put in so much of your time, effort and hard work to make this our best fundraiser yet!
