Thanks for the memories

This will be my last Royal Update as your editor. Leah and I are relocating to Idaho and therefore I am hanging up the quill.

It has been a fun and occasionally challenging four years I have been doing it. Announcing upcoming Rosarian events and activities and highlighting those gone by has continually amazed me for all that the members do. You are a wonderful, creative, dedicated and, most of all, fun loving group and I wish I could hug one and all, however the Governor says not for now.

I would like to thank the proof reading team of Duke Peter Glazer (the "komma king"), Duchess Marilyn Schultz (the teacher never quits) and Sir Knight Tom Marrentette (taught everything I should know). With three proofers it always amazed me that they each caught something different. I often put them under pressure to meet a publishing deadline and they came through. If I dare send it out without their proofing I would most likely be caught with some silly mistake as I did in the last issue.

As you may have seen in the Tuesday Report the editor position is open. The format is Constant Contact and easy to use. When I started it was html only and tedious, but we have upgraded from there. If you are interested contact incoming PM Korrie.

- L.R. Knost, Author

(The late Jim Nielson, Prime Minister in 1979, was famous for his “truisms” which he happily shared in each issue of the Royal Update from its launch in 2005 until his death in 2011. Jim was knighted under the rose Sutter's Gold, pictured. Truisms now are either from Jim's archives or are quotations Duke Pete Glazer thinks Jim would like. If you'd like to suggest a quotation please email it to Peter.)
