

4TH TUESDAY NEWS

Club Programs in August

- August 1 District Foundation Chair Erin Luken brought us up to date on District and Global Grants, both how to become qualified to submit and how to join another Club's grant. She shared goals and more.
- August 8 When our speaker didn't arrive we had a "Club Day" and discussed current club projects and general goals and club business.
- August 15 Author David Benjamin brought many of his published works, regaled us with advice about restaurants in Paris and living abroad, and donated a set of four books to our Silent Auction. Last Kid Books | Publishing The Works Of David Benjamin

Interact

School starts in a little over two weeks. Hannah will be bringing us news soon after.

Tom and Joey Marshall, Janel Kalish, Sue & Mike Mach taking a break during a work day at our Rotary garden!

Fall Fundraiser

Auction Items to date:

- 2 season tickets to Badger Basketball
- 4 tickets for one Women's Badger Volleyball game + Parking. Approximate value of $100.
- Signed copies of both novels by our own Lynn Perez-Hewitt
- A four book signed set of mysteries by David Benjamin
- One signed copy of ...by David Benjamin
- Two Rotary etched wine glasses and one bottle of Red Wine
- Two Rotary etched wine glasses and one bottle of white wine
- One Lamy fountain pen with five different color ink cartridges and a Ferris Wheel Press blank journal

Little Free Library Update

Joey Marshall and Lynn Perez-Hewitt met with the Board of the Friends of the Fitchburg Public Library. They are willing to share books and more to fill and support the library.