Detective Superintendent Graeme Marshall is a 26 year Australian Federal Police (AFP) career officer who has served across various crime commands and geographic locations. In 1994, he commenced in Sydney before transferring to Perth in 1999. During these periods, he conducted fraud, drug, proceeds-of-crime and multi-agency responsibilities. He also relocated from Perth to Canberra, on two separate occasions, to complete duties in Professional Standards, Security and Intelligence.

Graeme undertook overseas deployments in 2002, to support the United Nations Transitional Administration in East Timor (UNTAET), and in 2004, to support the Regional Assistance Mission to the Solomon Islands (RAMSI), and found both to be extremely rewarding experiences.

Graeme returned to Perth in 2011 and held senior Crime Command roles. This enabled him to take the profit out of crime, by empowering the Criminal Asset Confiscation Taskforce (CACT) to pursue a vision of civil proceeds independent of criminal prosecution, and protect the Australian community through enhanced partner-agency relationships, by establishing the Joint Organised Crime Task-Force (JOCTF) which culminated in a record 1.2 tonne seizure of methamphetamine in late 2017.

In early 2018, Graeme deployed to the Philippines where he revolutionised the domestic and foreign law enforcement collaborative effort to counter international child exploitation by establishing the Philippine Internet Crimes Against Children Centre (PICACC). The PICACC positions the Philippines as a future 'centre-of-excellence' in combatting online sexual exploitation of children.

Graeme was promoted to Sergeant in 2008, received Detective Designation in 2017 and returned to Western Australia in 2021 to take up promotion as Superintendent Investigations for Western Command. He holds a Bachelor of Arts (Criminal Justice Administration), a Masters (Transnational Crime Prevention), a Graduate Certificate in Applied Management (Policing and Emergency Services) and has completed the Western Australia Police Senior Investigation Officer course.

Graeme is supported by his partner Walter and, when not working, they enjoy pursuing fitness, travel, ancient history and art as members of the AGWA, NGA, NPG, PIAF and WASO.
