Brexit Consequences

Previous guest Dr Binoy Kampmark was again a fascinating speaker on Monday night, talking about the consequences of Brexit. His main thesis was that, despite both sides of the debate predicting dire outcomes as a result of the vote, the real effects are not yet known.

Dr Binoy Kampmark

Binoy indicated that, while there were many recognised positive aspects of the European project, the individual nation states and their peoples were rediscovering the importance of sovereignty. Brexit revealed, in a true global sense, the tensions between the distant unelected officials in Brussels and the British voter. That European project had various virtues but at some point it became gargantuan, marred by bureaucratic insensibility. Binoy noted the return of certain unsavoury elements in European politics. He speculated that Theresa May's appointment of Boris Johnson as Foreign Secretary may have been devised as a form of exquisite punishment for him and indicated his belief that the Germans were looking to deal with long-term demographics problems in inviting Syrian refugees to settle.

The other issue that Binoy mentioned was the pressure exerted by people outside the UK on how British voters should vote. This was most dramatically demonstrated by the needless pressure exerted by President Barack Obama when he stated that a Brexiting state would go to the "back of the queue" on negotiating trade deals. Such statements appear to have been counter productive. The questions and answers were many and varied and a very stimulating evening was had by all.

The Next Speakers - "Youth Suicide Awareness"

In Australia adolescents are the only group in the community whose health has not improved over the last three decades. Suicide is the largest single cause of all deaths, and represents 22.1% of deaths between the ages of 15 and 24, Sadly for each reported death by suicide there are more than 20 suicide attempts in this age group.

The Youth Suicide Awareness Program was instigated by Brighton North Rotary in 1996, and championed by Brighton North member Phil Wheatley. Since then it has become a District Endorsed Program with over 140 scholarships awarded throughout the District with a total investment by 35 Clubs of in excess of $500,000 to recipients in many vocations, to arm them with enhanced capabilities to deal with the issue of Youth Suicide, through the Graduate Diploma in Adolescent Health and Welfare from the University of Melbourne.

The speakers are Brighton North Rotarian, Richard Potter and Janine Stratford, the new chair of the Youth Suicide Awareness Committee.

Rotary Radio - Doing Good in Victoria

For a number of years, Rotarians and Clubs throughout our District 9800 have been involved in Community Radio, producing their own Rotary programming which is broadcast live to their coverage areas. In particular, there has been great work done in Melbourne suburbs on the Rotary & Community Services Show on 3WBC, the Rotary in Action Show on Inner FM, plus in Bendigo on Phoenix Community Radio.

However, unless you are able to tune in on Fridays at 6pm or Tuesdays at 4pm, for example, you miss some great interviews, stories and information about Rotary. For this reason we have now joined all these great shows about doing good across our State, and joined them together via a single podcast on iTunes, enabling you to listen whenever and wherever you want.

So how do you subscribe? You can click on this link to take you straight to iTunes:

Rotary Radio - Doing Good in Victoria. Alternatively go to the iTunes store on your device and search "Rotary Radio" to find us.

You can download a podcast, which means you're saving it on your phone, or tablet, or computer, and you can listen to it anytime, even without an internet connection. Then listen to it in your car by connecting your phone to the car speakers (most newer cars have an audio jack) or listen on the train or bus with your headphones.

The Camberwell Sunday Market is one of Australia's most popular and iconic second hand, antique, craft and vintage markets. Established by Balwyn Rotary in 1976, the Market has raised over $15 million for community and humanitarian causes within our local community, other parts of Australia and the World.

To celebrate this magnificent achievement,
Kevin Walsh, President of Balwyn Rotary, invites
