Melbourne Cup Eve Celebration

Another great social night night on Melbourne Cup Eve, with decorations, entertainment and prizes organised by Val Cuniffe. Unfortunately our grand Poobah Steve Wylie was unable to attend due to work commitments. However, PP John McCaskill stepped up to the starting gate and handled proceedings with his usual strong arm tactics.

Bill Granger put together a quiz, with a most eclectic variety of questions, with most of us seriously testing our memories. Roger Taylor and Austin King were each winners of a prize for the best and most creative race day hats made from assorted materials provided to Val Cuniffe. Gerry Cross ran the sweep, which was hugely supported by all present. The sweep prize winners are .....

Roger Taylor and Austin King

	$5 sweep	$2 sweep	$2 sweep
Winner	J Braine $60	D Zrna $24	J McCaskill $24
2nd	R Waghorne $30	R Taylor $12	V Cuniffe $12
3rd	M Short $15	K Cross $6	G Cross $6
Last	G Cross $15	G Bishop $6	V Cuniffe $6

Next Monday - FORaMEAL Food Packing

Next week, the usual meeting will be a food packaging night with participants from many sources. We do need as many members and partners from our own Club on the night to help. There is no cost for the evening, however, members, and/or partners are asked to bring a plate to share. If you are not sure what to bring, you may contact Val Cuniffe on 0411 345 600 to get further information. We all know that so much work is done by Doug Hawley for these FORaMEAL food packaging nights, but we should also recognise the contributions made by our own members, especially Lili-Ann Krieglger and Val Cuniffe.

Next Wednesday - Stephanie Woollard

Next week, on Wednesday, 14 October, the Rotary Club of Camberwell is having a special guest speaker, Stephanie Woollard. Stephanie began Seven Women at 22 years of age after meeting seven disabled women working in a tin shed in Kathmandu. After twelve years, over 5,000 women have been educated, trained and employed by Seven Women.

I have heard Stephanie speak at past district conferences, and would highly recommend attending. It's a 6:15pm for 6:30pm start at The Bass Centre, 2 Rochester Road, Canterbury, and you need to register attendance ASAP through Alan Lorenzini alan@lorenzinigroup.com.au.
