

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 2021 ~ IN-PERSON/YOU-TUBE CLUB MEETING

---

PLEDGE–Chris Hinojosa | FOUR WAY PACT–Gary Anderson | INVOCATION – Jack Lucas

GUESTS

Jim Burke, Links Technology.

Tim Lloyd Cohagen, Illinois Internet Advertising, guest of the club.

Wendy Paszkiewicz, VP of Academic Affairs, Adler University, guest of the club.

Anastasia Lozhkina, Real Estate Broker, @properties.

Lora Georgieva, Certified College Planner, our speaker.

ROTARY GOOD NEWS

- Tom was not with us | Brian Berg did a great job filling in | No Rotary Good News today

HAPPY DOLLARS

Rachel Hubsch was happy for Labor Day weekend and her annual trip.

Glenn Szurgot was proud of two grandsons' football performances; one ran for 3 touchdowns; the other ran 95 and 55 yards.

Roger Smith was looking forward to homemade pizza on the grill with family.

Bill Kelley was looking forward to his upcoming trip to Yellowstone National Park.

Gayle Vandenberg thanked Jim Fabbrini and sister Lisa for a wonderful evening of flower design and wine tasting with Nancy R. Bonnie M. and Rosemary J. They bought this fun package on the Classic Silent Auction.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Brian Berg is looking for members to attend a Food 4 Thought presentation/photo op at Helen Keller School on Thursday, September 9. Be there at 7:30 if you can make it.

Gayle Vandenberg reminded everyone about the September Fellowship event – German Food, Beer, and Music at Platzkonzert at the Hoffman Estates Village Green with fireworks.
FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 10 BEGINNING AT 5PM.

Gayle also reminded everyone to SELL THOSE VACATION DRAWING TICKETS.

Rachel Hubsch invited everyone to take a Rotary theme pin.

Holly Fath is looking for people to sell Vacation Drawing tickets at Platzkonzert next weekend (September 10-12).

QUEEN OF DIAMONDS

The spin landed on Bob Keller's name. Since Bob was not present, the card behind the lowest number was revealed. It was the Seven of Diamonds. Sorry, Bob.

FUN & FROLIC FINE MASTER ~ George Panopoulos

Fines - $2; with a $5 cap.

Late – no pin – no badge. No sold vacation drawing tickets.

Bill Kelley for being happy for his trip to Yellowstone.

Anyone hosting a BBQ this weekend; anyone going to a BBQ this weekend.

Labor Day Quiz

- 1) Labor Day began because the unions in New York wanted to have a parade.
- 2) It began as a holiday in 1882.
- 3) The largest union is the National Education Association.
- 4) The number of union members is shrinking
- 5) 7 billion hot dogs are eaten between Memorial Day and Labor Day.

PROGRAM ~ College Without Going Broke | Lora Georgieva | Destination College

College tuition is rising at a rate of 7% per year. Be smart when applying for college entrance. Lora gave the following advice:

Major Career – know what field you want to work in – complete a major assessment

College Selection – select a college based on your major field of study

Admission Essay – write a compelling essay; include volunteer work and leadership experience

College Application – apply to six colleges

FAFSA CSS Profile – get your financial aid forms in early – October

Negotiating Tuition – for special circumstances

Scholarship / Loans – explore all avenues of assistance – look for low interest rates

Take the ACT/SAT three times

ACT/SAT and college application fees can be waived

Reposition the child's assets.