

Rotary of Juneau
Vocational Service Award Recipients

| Year | Corporate/Business                                            | Individual                                                                                          | Governmental Org                                                                            | Non-profit                                                             | Youth         |
|-------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------|
| 2002        |                                                                      |                                                                                                            |                                                                                                    |                                                                               |                      |
| 2003        | Reliable Transfer Corp.                                       | Bob Janes, Sr.                                                                                      | Mayor's Task Force on Youth                                                                 | SE Regional Resource Center                                            |                      |
| 2004        | Alaskan Brewing Co. , rep by Curtis Holmes and Heather Conlin | Lesslie Knight, JDHS for work with youth                                                            | JDHS Steps Program , rep by Dale Staley (Students Taking Employability Skills Successfully) | SAGA YABAH program (Young Alaskans Building Affordable Housing)        |                      |
| 2005        | Baxter, Bruce &amp; Sullivan, PC                              | Dan Austin , Director of St. Vincent de Paul.                                                       | Yaakoosge' Daakahidi , "Place Where Learning Happens"                                       | Juneau Youth Services                                                  |                      |
| 2006        | Dennis Egan , KINY Radio                                      | Jetta Whittaker , Exec. Director of the Glory Hole                                                  | Millie Duncan , Administrator Wildflower Court (non-profit business)                        | Hospice &amp; Home Care                                                |                      |
| 2008        | AEL&amp;P , for efforts after the 4/08 avalanche              | Rebecca Parks , Education Specialist with JEDC, for Science, Technology, Engineering & Math program | JDHS, Secondary Planning Team , for work on the second high school                          | REACH , 30 years of helping those with disabilities live independently |                      |
| 2009        | DIPAC                                                         | Jerry Harmon , Surface General Foreman, Kensington Gold Mine                                        | No nominees in 2009                                                                                | Juneau Youth Services                                                  |                      |
| 2010        | Capital Copy, Ltd , Ken, Beth and Tom Melville                | PeggyAnn McConnochie                                                                                | Juneau Job Center                                                                           | Sim's Foster Home , Rena & Lenny Sims                                  |                      |
| 2011        | Lynden, Inc. , Kathleen Gamble & ?                            | Debbie Banaszak &amp; Terri Calvin , counselors at TMHS & JDHS                                      | Alaska Div. of Elections , Gail Fenumiai                                                    | KTOO - Bill Legere accepted award plus 4 volunteers                    |                      |
| 2012        | Cruise Line Agencies of Alaska                                | Washington Parks , District Manager for Social Security Administration                              | Juneau School Dist. House Build Project                                                     | Salvation Army , accepted by Capt. Don Warriner                        |                      |
| 2013        | Behrends Mechanical                                           | Tari Stage-Harvey                                                                                   | UAS Mine Training Program                                                                   | Girls on the Run                                                       |                      |
| 2014        | Community Partnership - Downtown Improvement Group            | Debbie Fagnant - Mental Health Activist                                                             | JAMM - Lorrie Heagy                                                                         | Sea Dogs (Bruce Bowler)                                                |                      |
| 2015        | Allen Marine                                                  | Dr. Bob Urata                                                                                       | Division of Vocational Rehabilitation                                                       | Perseverance Theatre - STAR                                            | Justin Sleppy |
| 2016        | Alaska Auto Repair                                            | Ken Leghorn                                                                                         | Johnson Youth Center                                                                        | S.A.I.L.                                                               | Gavin Martin  |