New Rotary leadership steps up -- and the Yukon goes its own way

July is Leadership Month in Rotary and that's when the changing of the guard occurs. RI president is Mark Daniel Maloney, right, of Decatur, AL. District 5010 (which will no longer include the Yukon) will be led by Andre' Layral of Fairbanks, above right, with wife Sheri. He hopes to develop young leadership, provide regional Rotary education, and strengthen clubs' public image. Above, outgoing JGR president Kim Kiefer welcomes new president Julie Olson, right.

She was always there – and with a smile

Outgoing club president Kim Kiefer was feted by previous presidents (who comprise the “Anchor Club”) two weeks ago. The former city manager, at left, will get to cherish the anchor for the next year. Kim’s JGR leadership was marked by her participation in projects large and small, rain or shine, and always with a smile. Former presidents, below L to R: Candy Behrends, Kevin Ritchie, John Pugh, Rosemary Hagevig, Paul Dick, Pam Varney, Linda Blefgen, and Amy Lujan, (posing as bulb maven “Tiny Kim”). Thank you, Kim, for your dedication to our club and to our community.

A ramped up effort

Club members Kevin Ritchie and Kim Champney were joined by her husband Pat and son Toby to build a ramp to aid a cancer patient. Emily Ricci of Cancer Connection, her friend Nathan, and the patient’s dad (visiting from New Zealand) helped with the July 9 construction.
