Senator to discuss fiscal options, potential outcomes

The legislature is deeply into its 32nd session and Senator Natasha von Imhof is in the thick of it as the chair of the Legislative Budget & Audit Committee. She is also a member of the Finance and Resource committees.

Sen. von Imhof is a fourth generation Alaskan, born and raised in Anchorage. She earned a BS from Harvard College and went on to receive her MBA from the University of Washington. She was elected to the Alaska State Senate in 2016.

Her career has centered around finance. She worked as a branch manager and commercial loan officer for National Bank of Alaska, and currently works as a financial analyst for Latash Investments. She sits on the boards of the Atwood Foundation, Rasmuson Foundation and Seattle Children's Hospital Foundation.

In her spare time, she enjoys biking, hiking, reading, and cooking.
