MARVIN W. MAYDEW

1926-2014

Marvin was a charter member of Topeka South Rotary Club and served as Treasurer of the Club for the 1993-1994 club year. Marvin was a certified public accountant and attorney. His classification was “Accountant-Law Taxation”.

Marvin earned a bachelor of business administration and juris doctor degrees from Washburn University. In 1956, he established his own public accounting firm in Topeka where he practiced for over 35 years. After his retirement from public accounting, he practiced law for 10 years. Marvin served as a board member of numerous professional, civic and governmental boards including the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants National Review Board, the Kansas Society of Certified Public Accountants and Education Foundation, the Kansas Board of Accountancy, Topeka Symphony Society and Information Network of Kansas.

Marvin grew up on a farm in Smith County, Kansas, and was a great source of information on the Western Kansas farming economy at our Friday morning breakfasts. Marvin had a deep voice which commanded your attention when he spoke. He used this voice when pursuing his hobby of singing in barbershop quartets. He was married to Ona for over 50 years and together they had two children.
