

Youth Protection Policy and Procedures

Statement of Conduct for Working with Youth:

Rotary International and District 5050 strive to create and maintain a safe environment for all youth who participate in Rotary activities. To the best of their ability, Rotarians, Rotarians' spouses and partners, and other volunteers must safeguard the children and young people they come into contact with and protect them from physical, sexual, and emotional abuse.

Rotary D5050 Youth Protection Policy applies to District activities that involve minors. This includes the Youth Exchange Program, Y.E.S. (Youth Engaged in Service), Interact, and Y.A.I.L. (Youth Adventures in Leadership) programs.

Minors are usually defined as those less than 18 years of age; however, since some youth exchange students as well as some Interactors may be slightly older, they are treated as minors in Rotary's efforts to protect the Youth. Rotaractors are college age or older and are not included as minors and are not covered in Rotary's Youth Protection Policy.

In protecting our youth, there is no one process that guarantees safety. It's the combination of these deterrence measures that minimize the risk.

District 5050 Youth Protection Policy and Procedures (2017)

1. Youth Exchange (RYE)

District 5050 has implemented procedures and protections with regard to the Youth Exchange Program. Detailed procedures and directives have been set forth in the Rotary District 5050 Guide for Youth Exchange Officers. This guide is available online. Interested parties should request it from their Youth Services Chair or the District Compliance Officer if they are unable to locate it online. If there is an actual or perceived conflict between that guide and the policies and procedures herein, then the more protective policy or procedure should be followed and guidance should be sought from the District Youth Protection Officer and the District Compliance Officer.

2. Definitions

Casual Contact, Youth Exchange (RYE): Persons having casual contact are persons not directly responsible for the youth but who may provide incidental transportation or invite a youth to an event such as dinner, movie, sports event, weekend activity, or travel. Such activity must be jointly approved by the Host Family and the Club Youth Services Chair. Casual contact must be infrequent and incidental so that a regular pattern is not developed. Further, casual contact must take place in a group setting (2 or more people) with no reasonably foreseeable risk of abuse or harassment, verbal or otherwise. Persons having casual contact with youth are not required to be screened.

Casual Contact Overnight Travel

This policy will permit a Youth Exchange youth to take advantage of unanticipated overnight opportunities which may occur thereby enhancing the youth's understanding and experience of the local environment. Such opportunities include trips of up to 72-hours duration, such as ski weekends, in which the youth will be in the care and custody of an adult who has not been screened. It is understood that no activity can be totally free of risk and the objective of the policy is to minimize risk for all parties.

For overnight travel to be permitted under this casual contact policy, the Host Family and the Club Youth Services Chair must jointly decide that:

- The activity is one in which the unscreened adult will not be in a one-to-one situation with the youth but there will always be at least one other responsible adult present;
- The unscreened adult appears to be responsible and trustworthy;
- The unscreened adult understands that he or she must treat the youth, as would a conscientious parent caring for the welfare of their own child and the unscreened adult accepts that responsibility; and
- The proposed activity does not present significant risk of abuse.

If there is not agreement between the Host Family and the Club Youth Services Chair, the proposed activity shall not be permitted. If there are any questions or disagreements on how to proceed, the District Youth Protection Officer will be contacted.

Casual Contact, Youth not in Youth Exchange: Persons having casual contact with a youth not in youth exchange are persons who may have brief contact with youth as part of a club sponsored event. Casual contact must be infrequent and incidental so that a regular pattern is not developed. Further, casual contact must take place in a group setting in a public place and there must be no one-to-one contact between the adult and the youth. There must be no reasonably foreseeable risk of abuse or harassment, verbal or otherwise. Persons having this type of casual contact with youth are not required to be screened.
