Webinar Topic: Interview hints and tips for getting the right job

Probably the single most important decision a company can make is the selection and hiring of the right staff for the organisation and equally the decision by an individual about which company to work for can have a profound impact on his or her job satisfaction and personal self-fulfillment.

Building upon decades of experience in this sector, this brief (1 hour) Interview Skills training presentation enables attendees to identify the right job and maximise their chances of getting it.

From guidance on how to create a great resume and cover letter through to hints and tips on holding a successful job interview, attendees will improve their chances of securing the job of their dreams.

SATURDAY 25TH JULY 10AM, WITH Q&A
