A Brief History of Zone 24

Rotarians in what is now Zone 28 look back with pride to 1910, when the first Rotary club outside of the United States, Winnipeg, made our organization Rotary International. In the next five years, nine more clubs were chartered in Canada before numbered districts came into existence. These included Toronto (1912), Halifax, Hamilton, Montreal, Vancouver and Victoria (1913), Calgary and St John (1914) and London, home of the 2010 Rotary Institute (1915). Somewhere around 1918, the whole of Canada was designated Zone 2.

As Rotary grew, Zone 2 morphed into Zone 22 and remained as such until 2008. A worldwide rezoning in 2008 changed the zone association of some border districts and renumbered the resulting zone as 24. Zone 24 is now constituted of Russia east of the Ural Mountains, all of Alaska, portions of the US states of Washington, Michigan, New York and Maine, most of Canada and the two French islands of St Pierre and Miquelon off the coast of Newfoundland.

Prior to the official rezoning in 2008, Zone 22 had been paired with South Korea for the purposes of alternately selecting directors for two-year terms on the Rotary International board. Beginning in 2010, the selection of directors was revised to pair the new Zone 24 with the contiguous Zone 32, comprised of the New England states, New Jersey, parts of New York and Pennsylvania and the island of Bermuda. At that same time, Rotary leaders in both zones reached out Beyond Borders to extend the relationship to also include a common Zone Directory and joint institutes combining five nations in Rotary service.

The year 2010 marks 100 years of Rotary in Canada, a milestone proudly recognized at the 2010 Rotary International Convention in Montreal. In honor of this occasion, a new Canadian stamp was issued featuring Rotary's commitment to the eradication of polio and the support of that goal by all Rotarians, including of course, those in Zone 24.

Rotary Institute History – Zones 22, 24

Over that 100 years, Zone 24, under all of its' previous numerical designations, has made considerable contributions to the advancement of Rotary. Many years ago, long before the 2010-2011 Presidential theme of Building Communities – Bridging Continents or the 2010 London Institute theme of Building Bridges Between Borders, the longest undefended border in the world between Canada and the United States was spanned by a bridge literally built by Rotarians to foster trade, communication and friendly relations between peoples of two lands. For many years, the French speaking population of Eastern Canada has reached out to embrace their tiny neighbors, the French islands of St. Pierre and Miquelon. The Canadian Yukon and Alaska have committed countless hours over a number of years in the pursuit of the expansion of Rotary into Eastern Russia, and as a measure of the success of these efforts, Russia has already provided a District Governor.

The Rotary Institute in London, Ontario in November 2010 marks the first combined institute of Zones 24 and 32, offering new opportunities for expanded friendships and fellowship. And now we look even further than London to the 2011 Rotary Institute in Boston, where, together, we will celebrate Boston and Beyond as we build a future of cooperation and service with Zone 32.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF ZONE 32

Although the Rotary bylaws provided in 1922 for the USA to have five RI directors, a zone system to assure geographic distribution was not put into effect until the 1939 RI Convention. The eastern part of the USA became Zone 5, and remarkably, it looked much like Zone 32 today. The original Zone 5 took in all the states between Pennsylvania and Maine and that configuration remained for nearly 35 years.

In the early 1970s, the Rotary world was rezoned and the number of RI Directors increased to 17. The result was that parts of old USA Zone 5 were put into three new USCB zones, 6, 8 and 12. These three zones, which then extended into Ohio, were matched for purposes of Zone Institutes. Zone 6 and 12 were paired for alternate selection of RI Directors, and Zone 8 was paired with Zone 2 (all of Canada) for alternating selection of RI Directors.

By then, the “Zone Institutes” were in their infancy. Started by the dynamic Bill Walk in 1965 when he served as a Director in the California zone, Walk invited the PDGs from old USA Zone 1 to the San Francisco airport for a daylong meeting to update the PDGs on Rotary. Chaired by then PDG Stan McCaffrey, the luncheon speaker at this first Zone Institute was the immediate past president of the Berkeley Rotary Club, Cliff Dochterman. As the news of the success of these Institutes spread, more RI Directors started convening these informational meetings and, with Bill Walk the incoming President of RI, Zone 5 Director Jack Davis convened the first Zone Institute for this area in Philadelphia in 1969. A PDG in attendance at that first Zone 5 Institute was Chuck Keller.

After being years in the making, and as the percentage of Rotarians in the northeast continuing to decline, the 1995 Council on Legislation again faced the challenge of rezoning. It resulted in the creation of Zones 31 and 32 to replace USCB Zones 6, 8 and 12, with Zone 31 being roughly equivalent to old Zone 12 and Zone 32 being about the size of old Zone 6 plus a little of Zone 8. The rest of Zone 8 was sent into the mid-west.

The Zone 31/32 combination prevailed for less than 15 years. With the number of Rotarians continuing to decline in the northeast, the most recent rezoning left just one zone covering most of the area of the old 1939 Zone 5 and the pairing of Zone 32 and 24 (most of Canada and Russia east of the Urals) for both alternating Directors and, by agreement of zone leadership, for purposes of Zone Institutes.

This succession of zones in the northeast USA has contributed 10 Presidents of Rotary International, and dozens of Vice Presidents, Treasures and chairs of the Executive Committee of RI.
