

Please join us for the final meeting for 2021 - Thursday 25 November at 7.30pm AEDT.

A special event to consider COP26 and reflect on what each of us can do to support the environment. Book your attendance through

<https://events.humanitix.com/oceania>

Reflections on COP26 featuring an interview with Karen Hendrick-

Hands, ESRAG Co-founder and Director Collaborations who attended COP26 as a representative of ESRAG with Rob Anderson Co-Chair, ESRAG Climate Taskforce.

This will be followed by a panel discussion moderated by Rob Anderson (Canterbury) and Pat Armstrong (Doncaster) ESRAG Chair Elect and Director Communications, Education, Administration & Governance.

Dr Roger Blakely a member of ESRAG and of the Rotary Club of Wellington, New Zealand attended COP1 in Berlin in 1995. He was formerly Chief Executive and New Zealand's first Secretary for the Environment 1986-1995, then Minister for the Environment. He was Chief Planning Officer at Auckland City Council and is currently an Councillor at Wellington Council. At Rotary Wellington, he has led his club to become carbon neutral and helped develop the club carbon calculator.	Dr Mahendra Kumar is a senior climate change specialist with experience in climate change, development, energy, and environment programs in Asia-Pacific and Africa. He is Honorary Associate Professor at the Institute of Climate Change, Energy & Disaster Solutions, at ANU, Canberra and an Honorary Research Fellow with the Pacific Centre for Environment & Sustainable Development, at the University of the South Pacific, Fiji. He has provided technical advice for the United Nations Environment Programme and has supported Pacific Island nations at previous COP forums.	Alex Jayasuria is a member of the Rotaract Club of Hillarys, Western Australia. He was selected as a Global Voices Scholar to attend COP26. He is a student of economics and finance at Curtin University in Perth, Alex will explore ways to expand the supply of carbon credits within Australia, as well as the potential for a regional carbon market in the Asia-Pacific. His goal is to help Australia develop innovative carbon solutions and remain competitive in a world where carbon tariffs may be applied..

Please share this invitation with fellow Rotarians, colleagues, friends and family, who will be enthralled by this special event.

<https://esragoceania.org>