

MEMBERSHIP PROCESS

1. Bring the potential member to the club meeting. Longmont Rotary will pay for two meals.
2. Make an appropriate introduction at the meeting.
3. If the individual is interested in Rotary membership give him/her a Longmont Rotary Club pamphlet and a New Member Proposal.
4. Once a New Member Proposal has been filled out, it should be turned in to the Club Secretary for action by the Board.
5. Notice of proposed member intent to join will be published twice in the Club Newsletter. Longmont Rotary members have 7 days to object to the proposed member. If no valid objections are brought before the Board the proposed member will be notified and an orientation will be scheduled (2nd Tuesday of each month).
6. After orientation is completed the Club President will be notified and a new member induction will be scheduled.
7. A mentor will be assigned to the new member and he/she will begin the RED BADGE PROGRAM.

NOTE: The process for membership can take up to a month.
