

MEMBERSHIP CODE OF CONDUCT

The purpose of this document is to establish expectations and responsibilities regarding your conduct as a member of the Rotary Club of Prince George. The agreement between yourself and the Club is defined as follows:

- I will base my relationship and my membership with the Club in accordance with the Four Way Test, as defined by Rotary International:
 1. Is it the truth?
 2. Is it fair to all concerned?
 3. Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
 4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?
- I agree to complete the Rotary Club of Prince George mentoring checklist.
- I agree to peruse the Rotary Club of Prince George and the Rotary International websites to gain an understanding of what a commitment to Rotary means, and therefore agree to accept the principles of Rotary in my professional and personal life.
- I acknowledge and understand that my time in Rotary may involve work with children, youth, vulnerable people, charities, as well as responsibilities associated with financial management and executive decision-making. I agree to submit to a Criminal Record Check (CRC) in the format prescribed by the Club.
- I agree to maintain trust and confidentiality at all times.
- I agree to attend weekly meetings as often as I can in person or via Zoom; participate in Rotary activities and projects when possible; and volunteer on at least one Club service project or committee. My engagement is important to the Club.
- I agree to follow up on the tasks I have been assigned and have agreed to undertake.
- I agree to remain current in my membership dues, luncheon fees, and any other financial commitments I make.
- I agree to remain open to advice and other constructive feedback related to Club activities.
- I agree to bring a positive attitude that builds fellowship among the Club members.
- I agree that above all, Rotary is a service club that provides "Service above Self".
