

“An institution is not just a place, it is the way people think.”
–Pat Worth

The Freedom Tour is a powerful documentary that has been raising awareness about life in an institution for people with intellectual disabilities, and to confront the stereotypes held that, for some people, institutions are an acceptable place to live.

Panel of speakers will include: Dr. Anne Hughson - Professor of Community Rehabilitation & Disability Studies at U of C, Brian Brigham - People First Member, and Carla Hamarsnes - Rotary Employment Coordinator. Click here for tickets.

Rotary Employment Partnership

Rotary, Inclusion Alberta and the Government of Alberta are committed to working in partnership with the business and broader community to create meaningful employment opportunities for people with developmental disabilities - to create the kind of possibilities that contribute to the fullness of community life.

To date the Rotary Employment Partnership has created more than 500 meaningful jobs for adults with developmental disabilities with an average wage of more than $14 per hour.

Rotary Employment Partnership was recognized internationally as a world leading innovation at the Zero Conference in Vienna, Austria by the ESSL Foundation in collaboration with the World Future Council and the International Labour Organization.

