UNDERSTANDINGS AND AGREEMENTS

Subscribed to by this

Provisional Rotary Club in the presentation of this application to R.I.

1. As our constitution, we have adopted the standard club constitution prescribed by Rotary International. This club understands that the club constitution can be amended only by convention of Rotary International, or (under certain circumstances for exceptional reasons) by the board of directors of Rotary International, in accordance with Section 2(d), Article I, of the by-laws of R.I. No amendment to the by-laws adopted by this club which might conflict with the constitution of the club or with the constitution and by-laws of Rotary International will be made without first submitting such proposed amendment to the general secretary of Rotary International for approval by its board of directors.

2. This club will be bound by any and all amendments to the standard club constitution which may be adopted hereafter (as provided in Article I, Section 2(b), of the by-laws of Rotary International, and in Article XIV of the constitution of this club).

3. This club will remit payment for its members' subscriptions to THE ROTARIAN as provided for in the club by-laws upon receipt of invoice covering such subscriptions. (An obligation of membership in the United States and Canada; elsewhere only when Article X is retained in club constitution.)

4. NO FURTHER MEMBERS will be elected between the filing of this application and the receipt of the official notice of the admission of the club to membership in Rotary International. Thereafter this club will faithfully endeavor to add to its membership at least one and not more than three new members each month during the first year of its existence.

5. This club, as a club, will not become a member of, or assume obligations of membership in any organization other than Rotary International.

6. This club is hereby pledged, in its desire to develop true Rotarians and a Rotary club that will function properly as a unit in Rotary International, to maintain the following fundamental characteristics of Rotary:

   a. The classification principle of membership.

   b. Attendance, at least in the required minimum, for continuance of membership.

   c. Fellowship, in the establishment of intimate and lasting friendships.

   d. The use of the club meeting in the making of broader and better business men—in training men to become more capable of rendering service in their vocations and in the community in which they live.

   e. The requirement that members strive for the betterment of their craft, particularly stressing higher business standards and practices.

   f. An obligation to do effective but non-duplicative service in their community, state or province, and country.

   g. Service to mankind.

   h. The advancement of international understanding, good will and peace.

Surveyor's Viewpoint

(Please comment fully on your personal observations of this community.)

Waikerie is a prosperous, developing, primary producing area with great potential. It has all those amenities which go to make up a prosperous and developing Australian Rural community. The work of the existing organisations such as the District Council, Churches and other district authorities appears to be of very high order. I have been much impressed during the course of this survey with the high standard of citizenship, and the "Key Men" listed opposite are fine men.

January 14th, 15th, 16th 1962. February 10th 24th 1962,

I visited this community on 28th March 1962 (day month year) and believe a Rotary Club, if formed would ~~would not~~ succeed.

Comments:

The prospects for the successful functioning of this Club are good.

On the basis of personal observation or specific information personally ascertained and furnished to me by my special representative, I CERTIFY that the officers and members of this provisional Rotary club have been fully informed concerning the fundamental characteristics of Rotary (as described in the application for membership form) and the provisions of the constitution and by-laws adopted by the club;

and that each charter member is eligible for membership in this club in accordance with the qualifications for membership as set forth in Article V of the standard club constitution and specifically, as provided therein, that – the place of business of each active member is located within the territorial limits of this club

– the classification of each active member is that which covers the principal and recognized activity of the firm, company or institution with which he is connected, or, if independently engaged, that which covers his principal and recognized business or professional activity.

I recommend the admission of this club as a member of Rotary International.

Respectfully submitted,
